

Message from Mrs Kinsley Welcome back! I hope you all had a restful half-term—it was so lovely to welcome everyone back through the gate on Tuesday, skipping along the Yellow Brick Road with their home learning. Thank you for supporting your child with their homework —the children are topic-focused and the classroom displays are full of beauti-

Diary Dates

Monday 11th Nov — Remembrance Day—2 minute silence

Thursday 14th Nov —World

Diabetes Day

Friday 15th Nov—Mr Wraight retiring

PTA disco—details tba

w/b Mon 18th Nov—Assessment Week

Wednesday 20th Nov—Y2 cinema trip

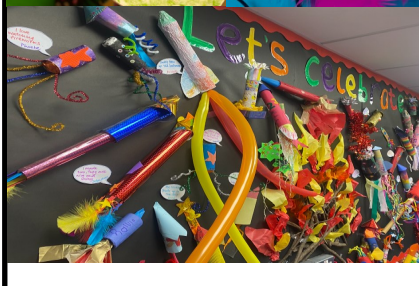

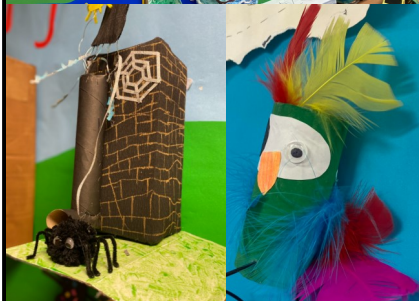

Sunday 24th - PTA Christmas Fair

SAFE

Pupil voice is all part of the positive school culture at Chatsworth—our new classroom displays include lots of comments from the children about their learning.

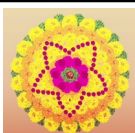

HOME LEARNING

HAPPY

On Tuesday the whole school learned about Diwali—the Hindu festival of light. Ms Turner shared the story of Rama and Sita, and in class the children made and decorated diya lamps, and talked about the period of reflection that often comes with the Hindu New Year. What a busy day!

LEARNING

This week Reception have been reading 'Room on the Broom' and became witches and created their own song and dance for the story!

We look forward to seeing families tonight at BOJ for the PTA Fireworks Night. Gates open at 6pm, display starts at 7.30. Tickets available on the gate or online—

see you there!

PARENT PHONICS WORKSHOPS

Year 1 parents are invited to a meeting in the school hall on either Monday 18/11 at 4.30, or Tuesday 19/11 at 9.30—

join us to hear about the changes to your child's phonics journey as they learn to grow

[illegible]